The Holy Grail!!

Well, I've been gone for a few months, but I'm back!!

A few weeks ago I went with my friend Sonny (Saints Car Club) to a place that will not be disclosed. Sonny prepared me early on by saying "Dirty, this dude's Harley collection is gonna blow your mind!".

Later in the day we pulled up to a very non descript house that appeared to have a rather small garage. Quietly I thought to myself, unless this guy has another shop on the property this collection can't be that big.....man, was I wrong!!!

Here are a few picks to wet your appetite, more to follow....

I think I heard the dude say during the visit he had approx. 24-28 pans and knuckles torn apart in this very garage.....I have to say, I don't doubt it....

Hale takes her first ride with Dad..

A few weeks back I asked my 6 year old daughter Hailey if she wanted to take a ride with her ole man and without hesitation she quickly responded "Sure!". Being that it would be her first ride, I gave her a quick rundown on what to expect and then we suited up up and bounced out. She had a great time as did I. Another one of those moments i'll file away in the back of my mind to remember for the rest of my life.

Sunday Rides

Taking rides on Sundays with the boys is something I always look forward to as a way of wrapping up the weekend. I have to say though, a Sunday ride with the boys and their chicks is even better!!! These chicks are definitely "DTR" (down to ride). Never a complaint among them and they all get along amazing....these 2 last things are hard to come by I've realized with age. I'm stoked were all friends, makes the Sunday rides even better!!

Napa to Long Beach and Back...

If you haven't had the privilege of meeting these two fine folks, allow me to introduce you to Suzy and Kevin. This year Kevin and Suzy took their Panhead from Napa to Long Beach for Born Free 2 and back over the course of a few days. They packed the Pan like a fuckin mule and hit the road.

What's the big deal you may ask yourself, people have been doin this for decades and yes that is true, but many things have also changed.....California roads are SHIT, People drive like bats out of hell, and most motorist now a days are so pre occupied with shit goin on inside their cars it seems they rarely look out the windshield at the things their about to mow over..... so ya, folks have been ridin choppers 2 up for decades but you have to agree its quite a challenge now to get from point A to point B and back without becoming a new hood ornament for a Prius!!!!

Anyways, Kev and Suzy, you guys rule!!!
